

Sheep immunoglobulin G monoclonal antibody SIg 375

Hybridoma cell line producing SIg 375 antibodies raised against sheep immunoglobulin G which are mouse monoclonal antibodies of the IgG isotype. Has been used in western blots, affinity chromatography and ELISA.

References

1. P J Richardson; K Siddle; J P Luzio(15 April) ,
<https://portlandpress.com/biochemj/article/219/2/647/15159/Immunoaffinity-purification-of-intact>,
<https://portlandpress.com/biochemj/article/219/2/647/15159/Immunoaffinity-purification-of-intact>,
219(2), 647-654

Category

Monoclonal Hybridomas
Cell Lines

Authors

Kenneth Siddle

Learn more

